Joan of Arc: Her Trial Transcripts (Paperback)

---

By Emilia Philomena Sanguinetti

Little Flower Publishing, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Abridged edition. Language: English. Brand new Book. Joan of Arc's fascinating life ended when she was 19 years old--burned at the stake after leading thousands of men in military battles that were decisive in ending the Hundred Years War. She was officially appointed as commander-in-chief of the French army by King Charles VII, but he later abandoned her when he could have intervened to save her from execution. In 1431, from January 9 to May 30, Joan was put on trial because "the judges found this woman superstitious, a witch, idolatrous, a conjurer of demons, blasphemous towards God and His saints, a schismatic and greatly erring in the faith of Jesus Christ." The transcripts of her trial were written by Guillaume Manchon, a notary, who produced the original documentation with oversight and assistance from two other notaries, Guillaume Colles and Nicolas Taquel. Those transcripts were written in Medieval/Middle French, and after the trial Manchon and one of the judges, Thomas de Courcelles, translated the Middle French into Latin and five handwritten copies were made. The first unabridged translations of those original Latin transcripts were published in modern French in 1841 by Jules Etienne Joseph...
